This camp will engage youth in teaching and exposing them to Alutiiq traditional and cultural relevant activities that include fishing, hunting, crafts, carving, basket weaving, skin sewing, Alutiiq Dancing, traditional cooking and storytelling by elders. In addition to these activities resource personnel from related health agencies facilitate group discussion and behavioral programs designed to assist the youth in making correct and appropriate choices. Emphasis is on traditional and cultural relevant activities with lessons geared to healthy mental and physical health.

August 15 – August 19

Girls camping trip to Kodiak. We will be camping out at one of the beaches. More information to come. Youth ages 10 through 14

*Participants need to be aware that camp conditions are primitive, with limited facilities and access. Camps will be held rain or shine so please bring your rain gear. We are in BEAR COUNTRY. You won't go hungry at camps: hiding food or candy in tents might encourage bears or other unwanted critters. All food for special diets need to be turned into the camp cook.
